

Certification as a Transformational Presence Coach (CTPC)

Certification as a Transformational Presence Coach is available for those who want this credential to support their work. There are two paths to certification, depending on whether you already hold an ICF or EMCC certification or equivalent.

For those who already have an ICF or EMCC certification or equivalent, the requirements are:

- 30 hours of Transformational Presence Coaching. These hours can include one-on-one coaching, team coaching, and organizational coaching. These hours must have taken place after completing the first TPLC Foundation Course.
- At least 4 different clients
- 80% of the sessions must be paid sessions
- Audio recordings of two 30-45 minute Transformational Presence coaching sessions with two different clients
- An oral exam where you will be asked to discuss the fundamental concepts of Transformational Presence, demonstrating your knowledge of the principles and your ability to explain concepts. You will receive the questions for preparation immediately after requesting the exam.

For those who do not have an ICF-recognized certification or equivalent, the requirements are:
